Word on the street

The Royal Ranger Pinewood Derby held on Saturday, March 26, has left young and old with many happy memories. Participants ranged from pre-school boys and girls to grandmothers and grandfathers. Out of 111 cars only 4 went totally undefeated. Congratulations to 2nd grader Cody Molewyk who was awarded "Top Eliminator."

First place winners in their divisions were:

Joy Buck	Daisy/Prims
Jonelle Shannon	Stars
Emily Kaminski	Ladies' Open
Cody Molewyk	Ranger Kids
Jake Frolo	Discovery Rangers
Caden Molewyk	Adventure Rangers
Tom McCoy	Men's Open

One boy, two girls and one dad will join Commander Wayne and Barb for a trip to Pizza Hut on Wednesday night March 30 as consolation for enduring that winless afternoon.

Tom Lares, former commander with outpost 21, helps Royal Rangers at Victory Temple Spanish Assembly. They meet on Tuesday evenings. He brought six Discovery age rangers with their pastor to race. One boy from Victory Temple is among those going for pizza.

Thank you Grand Rapids First for your support of Royal Rangers.
